

Flower bingo

A fun foraging creative exercise

WHALEARTS!

What is flower bingo?

Flower bingo is a fun way to spice up those once-a-day walks, or make sitting in the garden a little more exciting! The aim is to create a bingo sheet with native flowers and plants and then go looking for them! Once you've found them all, you've reached BINGO!

Don't worry if you haven't got access to a garden or aren't able to get out for a walk, these can be cut up and made into lovely little cards too!

What you'll need:

---

Paper

Pencil for drawing

Ruler

Paints or colouring pencils

Water

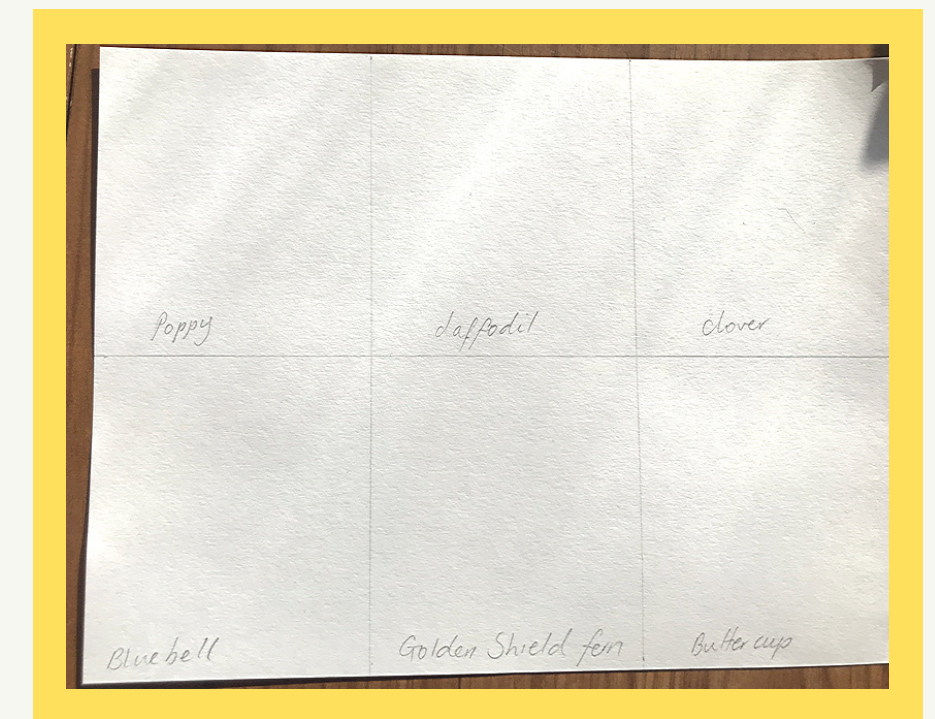

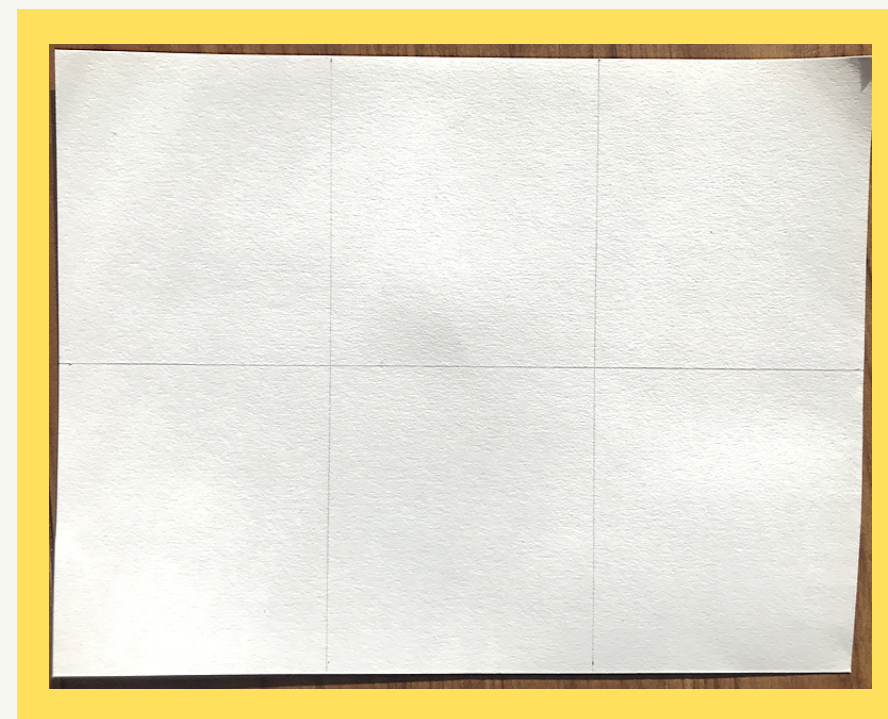

Paint brushes

Step 1:

LET'S CHOOSE ABOUT 6 NATIVE PLANTS THAT MIGHT BE GROWING NEAR YOU. ALSO, LET'S THINK ABOUT WHAT MIGHT OR MIGHT NOT BE IN SEASON!

ONCE YOU'VE DECIDED WHAT FLOWERS AND PLANTS YOU WOULD LIKE TO FORAGE FOR, DIVIDE YOUR PAPER INTO 6 AND LABEL EACH BOX WITH ONE PLANT.

Step 2: Let's get drawing!

START BY DRAWING YOUR FIRST
FLOWER IN YOUR TOP LEFTHAND BOX

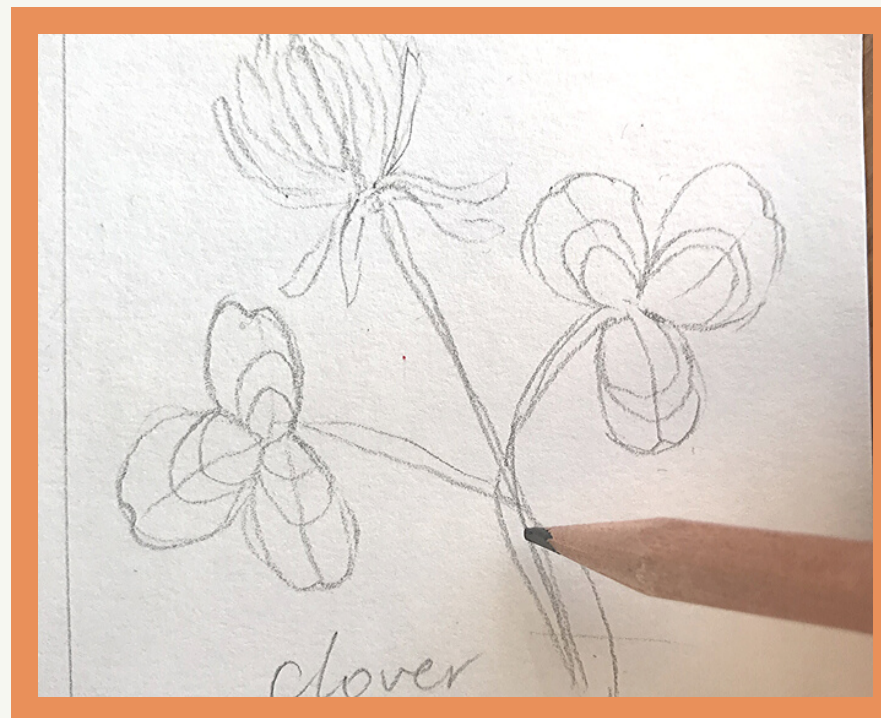

POPPY

Step 3: CONTINUE DRAWING ALL YOUR FLOWERS AND PLANTS

DAFODIL

CLOVER

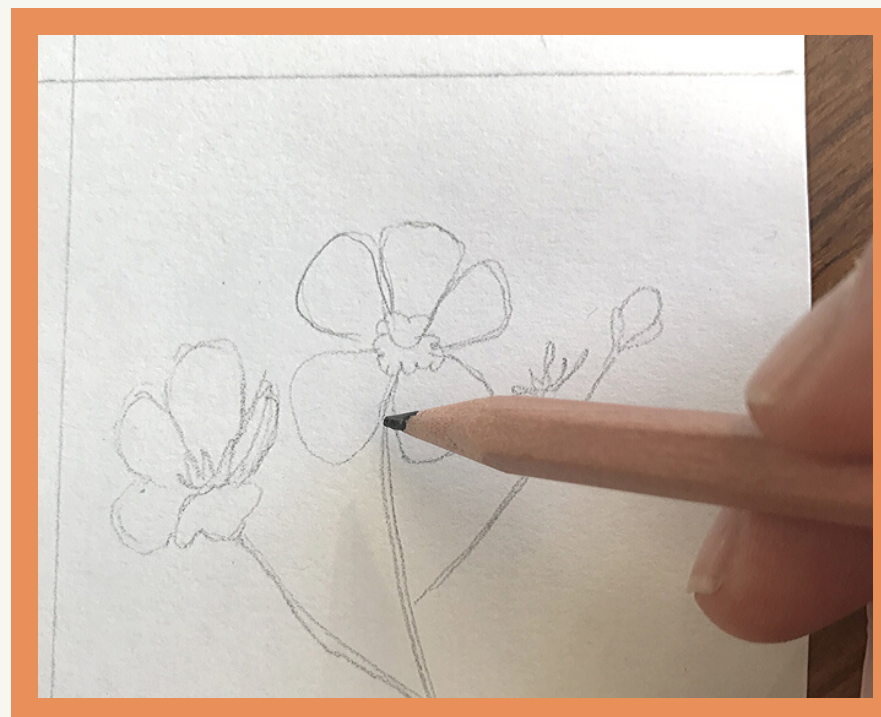

BLUEBELL

KEEP FILLING IN ALL YOUR BOXES!

FERN

BUTTERCUP

Once you've finished it should look like this:

---

Step 4: Let's add some colour!

WHETHER YOU'RE PAINTING OR COLOURING IN,
NOW IS THE TIME TO ADD SOME COLOUR

KEEP PAINTING ALL OF YOUR PLANTS AND FLOWERS

DAFODIL

NOW YOU'VE GONE FROM THIS...

TO THIS!

Step 5: LET'S SMARTEN IT UP A LITTLE BY DRAWING A BORDER AND PAINTING THE FLOWER NAMES!

PAINT OVER THE NAMES

MAKE A BORDER
WITH A BLACK PEN

RUB OUT ANY
PENCIL MARKS

Finished!

And there you have it, native plant and flower bingo! Now it's time to go on a walk, or a forage in the back garden and see what you can find. No worries if you can't get out, these make great gift cards or frame it and put it up on the wall for some lovely spring inspiration! SPRING-SPIRATION!
