

For the delivery of a community-based arts project as part of 'Wester Hailes: Your Story, Our Story'

Commission

WHALE Arts seeks an experienced artist to deliver a series of arts and heritage sessions for children and young people that will explore themes of identity, place, migration and belonging. The project consists of teaching sessions and a piece that creatively interprets the outcomes of the sessions. The final artwork can be in a variety of media - as deemed appropriate and in agreement with the project manager. Sessions will include evaluation and monitoring.

The artist will plan, prepare and deliver the sessions, as well as source appropriate materials, in agreement with the project manager. The artist will have the assistance of a support worker during the sessions that will provide support for children with Additional Support Needs to participate.

Content

4 x 2 hour teaching sessions
1 x 2 hour group trip to National Museum of Scotland to gather source material and research
1 x artwork

Timescale

Workshops with children and young people to take place July 2017. The commission is to be completed by January 2018. Apply by 17:00 9 June 2017.

Requirements

Artist must have appropriate skills and experience as per the Person Specification

Pay

£1,300

WHALE Arts will be will be invoiced for part payment of the work 14 days before payments due.

1. Stage payments: 50% at project inception and 50% upon successful project completion.